

$140^\circ$

The diagram illustrates three lines intersecting at a common point. One line is horizontal, while the other two are slanted. An arc is drawn between the two slanted lines on the left side of the intersection, indicating an angle of  $140^\circ$ .