

A diagram on a grid. A vertical line segment is drawn from the top edge to the horizontal line passing through O' . A horizontal line segment extends to the right from the top of this vertical line. Two points, O and O' , are marked with 'x' symbols on the horizontal line passing through O' . O is to the left of the vertical line, and O' is to the right.

$O \times$

$\times O'$