

A geometric diagram showing three intersecting lines. One line is horizontal, and two other lines intersect it at different points. The two non-horizontal lines are not parallel. An angle is marked with an arc at the intersection of the horizontal line and the leftmost non-horizontal line. The angle is labeled 140°.

140°