

A diagram on a grid. A vertical line segment is drawn from the top edge to a horizontal line. From the left end of this horizontal line, another horizontal line segment extends to the left. Two points are marked with 'x' symbols: one on the left, labeled  $O$ , and one on the right, labeled  $O'$ . The vertical line segment is positioned between the two points.

$O$

$O'$