

30°

The diagram illustrates two intersecting lines that cross at a central point. This intersection creates four angles. The angle at the top is highlighted with a curved arc. Above this arc, the text '30°' is written, indicating the measure of this angle. The lines extend from the center towards the corners of the image, forming an 'X' shape.